SUBJECT: Anastasia KOROBKINA ced

Enclosure "A"—One photograph of subject. no substance

NOTE: Previous RIRs showed a great deal of confusion as to the subject's correct identity and operations. Information contained herein is believed to be true. Enclosure "A" was obtained from GIC who received it from their informant Sergei SPANDYSKI (Re NSC-305). Sub-source is a Frenchman employee of Bureau de Documentation (Re NSC-295).

1. Anastasia KOROBKINA, sometimes uses the following Russian derivatives for her Christian name: Stasia, Katarba, Katalia. (This has been the source of some confusion in establishing proper identity.)

2. Subject is separated from her husband, Lt. KOROBKIN, who is a former officer of the Serbian and ROA armies. In spite of their separation, they carry on correspondence along "political lines."

3. Subject was employed in 1944-5 in the ROA security division, where she was regarded with suspicion. At the present time she lives at Schmeunried, Muehlweg, 43, near Ravensburg. She is often seen with Vikita KREITER (Re NSC-296) who is her lover. Both have been observed to be in company of Lt. GUNDAREV, the Soviet Repatriation Officer.

4. The French Bureau de Documentation suspects all three, i.e., KOROBKINA, her husband (Lt. KOROBKIN), and KREITER, to be Soviet informants and is now keeping them under surveillance. They have not as yet been arrested due to lack of proper evidence.

GULL

Victor LARIONOFF

Munich

GULL fought in the Russian Civil War and at its end went to Finland where he was a member of General KUTIKOFF's anti-Soviet group. He performed an act of sabotage against the Soviets in Leningrad and was forced to flee from Finland to France. In Paris, in 1928, he organized the "White Idea", an anti-Soviet youth organization which was to combat Soviet terror tactics with their own methods. He was expelled from France in 1938 and went to Germany where he worked as a journalist in Russian-language newspapers until 1944, at that time he joined the VIASSOF movement. He was placed as an "Intelligence and Security Officer" in the ROA intelligence section under Major KALUGIN. In 1945 he moved into the French Zone of Germany, but has avoided any contacts with the French Intelligence Services. He is now prepared to expose "the existing French-Soviet intelligence collaboration". He also has another plan which would deal with the detection and exposure of agents sent by the Soviets.

His connection with us has been brought about by our informant SLOTH, who has handled all our requests for further information on LARIONOFF. GULL has turned in 11 RIRs which have dealt with MVD activity in the Bodensee area, suspected Soviet agents and their activities in the US zone, SIS operational methods, Soviet agents who managed to penetrate the Gestapo, and various miscellaneous personalities.

GULL has established contact with the "Most Secret Council" of the NTSRP, and with the IIeme Bureau in the French Zone. We are planning to use GULL in the French Zone in the immediate future. His targets will be to penetrate the work of the IIeme Bureau, penetrate Soviet IS activities in the French Zone, continue observation of White Russian Political groups in the French Zone, and of White Russian groups in the Munich area.
